

Sydney Olympic Park

> Novotel & Hotel Ibis, Sydney Olympic Park

There are many other exciting things to enjoy at Sydney Olympic Park including golf, trapeze, archery, bird spotting, walking through over 425 hectares of parklands and family picnics. Not to be missed is the amazing Brickpit Ring Walk. The Walk is a 18.5 metre high circular walkway that allows visitors to view the Brickpit from above while preserving the habitat of the endangered Green and Golden Bell frog.

How to get here

By Road less than 1 minute from the M4 motorway, Sydney Olympic Park is clearly signposted from the nearest junctions.

By Rail Services from Lidcombe station run every 20 minutes. Services to Lidcombe run frequently from the City and on the Western Lines. It is a 20-30 minute journey from Sydney Central station.

By Ferry The most fun way to travel is to take the River Cat from Circular Quay and a connecting bus service will take you to the Visitor Centre.
